**ANOTHER GREAT BARGAIN WEEK.**

CONTINUANCE OF THE GREAT SUMMER CLEARANCE and Bankrupt Stock Sale. Everything reduced. You can't go amiss. Every dollar deposited with us this week for goods is a saving to the purchaser of from 20 to 50 per cent. The Bankrupt purchase we made recently put into our hands many very desirable goods at from one-third to one-half less than manufacturers' cost. We are always doing wonderful things, but a surprise awaits all customers to-day. A few straws from the great harvest field of bargains:

Ladies' Balbriggan Ribbed Jersey Vests-Colors pink, blue and tan. Considered good values a little earlier in the season at 45 cents. To-day 25 cents, a saving to the purchaser of 80 per cent.

White Victoria Lawns—The firm but delicate touch of simplicity is on their sheer white folds. Regular price, 7 cents per yard, and well worth it; to-day 31 cents, just one half. Figured Lawns-A bud, a bit of branch, a tiny flowerer, is all the pattern, but that is everything. Price to-day, 31 cents a yard.

Double-fold Figured Nun's Veiling—To-day, 4 cents a yard. Go anywhere else the price is double. Etc., etc.

The above is but average specimens of the thousands of special bargains offered in our Summer Clearance Sale.

ARE YOU GOING TO TRAVEL?

The whole family of Trunks, Grips and Traveling Bags are where you can take them in at a glance (first floor, basement). Pass the prices-you know they are right.

CESTRUCTING SIDE ISSUES. A gentleman in San Francisco claiming to be upon confidential relations with Senator Harrison, the Republican candidate for President, also claims to have a letter from that gentleman in which the assurance is conveyed that should he, Harrison, be elected President of the United States, he will make Mr. Blaine the head of his cabinet, by appointing him to the office of Secretary of State. In an interview with a representative of the San Francisco Chronicle, recently reproduced in our calumns, Col. Haymond vouchsafes the assurance with a high degree of dogmatic confidence that should Senator Harrison be elected President, M. M. Estee will have a position in his cabinet, and John F. Swift will be accorded a first-class diplomatic position, to wit: the office of Minister to China. Thus, even before the campaign is opened, we are acquiring a long ticket, a recapitulation of which gives-For President, Benjamin Harrison; for Vice President, Levi P. Morton; for Secretary of State, James G. Blaine; for Secretary of the Interior, M. M. Estee; for Minister to China, John F. Swift.

From the present rate of progress, we never was a prospect in politics so fair it could not be blighted by injudicious magement, and by the introduction of isturbing side issues. The present indications are that Senator Harrison will e elected President by the largest majority of elector al votes ever given to a candidate, but with the multiplicity of candidates, antagonisms are engendered. On the higher planes of politics there are always many influential and aspiring men. Their zeal and enthusiasm may be enlisted in behalf of a cause as long as their aspirations find reasonable ground upon which to base a hope of reward, but when all of the great prizes in the lottery of politics are already drawn, the tickets for the smaller ones fall into sad discount.

There is another peculiarly unfortunate phase germane to this line of consideration. The men whose names are thus hawked about in connection with high official position, dependent upon the success of the party whose cause they espouse, are forestalled in public estimation. When James G. Blaine enters upon a canvass of the country in favor of the Republican cause, he will not be received as the disinterested advocate of Republican principles and convictions, but will be reduced to James G. Blaine, the candidate for Secretary of State. Bringing the matter nearer home, when Messrs. Estee and Swift appear before the California public, their zeal and enthusiasm will be divested of all color of disinterestedness. They will stand before their audiences, not as exponents of principles, but as interested candidates for cabinet and diplomatic positions. We presume the gentleman who claims to know Mr. Harrison's mind on THE GOVERNMENT AND HYDRAULIC the subject of the appointment of Secretary of State, and the other gentleman, who, with so much confidence, asserts that Mr. Estee is to have a cabinet position, and Mr. Swift the appointment of Minis- and Mr. Swift the appointment of Minis- streams, or their tributaries, is most satistice, on Saturday evening. Notwithstanding all these things, it remains true that Mr. De Young is at the head of the Republican party, that he comes with a mission from the National organization to manage the campaign in California, and we are disposed to think Paris, Mo that he carries in his pocket more cabinet and diplomatic appointments than any delegate who has yet returned. We, therefore, await with no common interest the announcement of new names which shall serve the purpose of elongating the tale of the Presidential kite.

Aside from all this, we are highly gratified that at last an authoritative announcement has been made as to just who managed the Blaine campaign in Chicago, and we now have from the very highest authoritynamely, the gentleman himself-the statement that Mr. De Young managed that celebrated political fiasco. The Flaherty camping party returned yesterday from their trip to the headwaters of Silver Creek in El Dorado county. They report having had an excellent time. The scenery, they say, is grand, and the hunting and fishing excellent. They would have staid a week longer, had it not been for an accident. Their demijohn was broken, and as the nearest drug store was distant forty miles, they broke camp and started for home. The next time they go on such a trip, they will carry their snake-bite antidote in a keg.

A Pretty Game of Ball at Stockton-Some Minor Games.

by the California Associated Press. STOCKTON, July 29th .- The Haverlys deeated the Stocktons to day in a very pretty of ball, by a score of three to one The home team lost the game in the second inning, owing to bad throws and wild pitches by Whitehead and muffs by Stock-well. Whitehead was very wild at the encement of the game, and had more speed than he knew what to do with. But steadied down after the third inning and then pitched royally, striking out eight men, and the only hit made off him was Levy's single. Meegan was touched up for only four hits, and they were scattered.

At the receiving end both Ebright and Stockwell did great work. O'Day played a great game at short, having three put-out and five assists, and taking part in two louble plays. Gagus had his eye on the ball until the seventh inning, when he alowed two men to reach first, but neither ored. Hanley and Sweeney played their ositions for all there was in them. Levy ade a great running catch into cente field, and Herring made two clever catches in right and fielded in an overthrow to first and threw to third in time to catch run The Haverlys scored their three runs is the second inning. Powers was sent to first by Whitehead and advanced to second n a wild pitch, scoring on Levy's single Levy stepped around to third on Whiteead's second wild pitch. Hayes pointed the ball towards the first bag, and when Blakiston picked it up cleverly ducked un-der him and was safe. Hayes tried to steal second and Stockwell threw to Sweeney, who returned it in hopes of catching Levy t the plate, but Stockwell dropped the pall. Hayes went to third on Meegan's ou and in the passage of the ball between Lor rigan and Stockwell Hayes ran into Stockwell and the latter dropped the sphere, Hayes scoring. In the third inning three of the four hits were made off Meegan. Herring made a single, but was thrown out in trying to piler a base. Meegan gave Lorrigan a raised oall and Eddie lined it, being sent to third on a two-bagger by Moore, and scoring on weenev's out.

ANNUAL SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE. SUMMER CLEARANCE SALE. Hale Bros. & Co.

ANNUAL Hale Bros. & Co.

A QUESTION THAT HAS BEEN PUT to us many, many times during the past few weeks has been: "When will your Clearance Sale commence?" To all those interested in the event-and their number we think is legion-we would say that we are preparing for it now. Busy hands in every department are listing the stock. Pitiless pencils are scaling down the prices. Everything points to a CLEAR-ANCE SALE of unequaled magnitude.

One feature about these sales is this: It means pleasant trading. Goods are NOT on sale for a special day or a special hour. Limited sales of that kind is because the supply is limited. The result is crowding, confusion, dissatisfaction. We may be wrong, but it is our belief that in distributing and extending these opportunities we are looking more to the interest of the customer.

In other words, our plan is this: Goods are on sale until THEY ARE ALL SOLD. True this surplus summer stock could be disposed of by an old method--"special" sales at special hours. But we believe there is more fairness, justice, satisfaction in this method. In short, COME when you wish, BUY when you wish, buy WHAT you wish. Something in every department for everybody.

Davenport first appeared on the stage as the child in "Metamora." From that time she followed the stage as a profession gaining in ability steadily until Augustin Daly, recognizing her talent when he first John Drew, took her to New York and brought her out in 1869 at the Fifth avenue Theater in "London Assurance," "As You Like It," "Oliver Twist," "The School for Scandal," "Leah" and "Pique." held in the location of the school for Scandal," "Leah" and "Pique." In the latter piece she appeared for 250 nights. She then made several starring tours with great success, developing very much of the power and finish of her father's style, and the grace and ease of her mother's asyle, and the grace and ease of her mother's manner. The Davenports have been known as a family of the stage on both sides of their house. Besides E. D.
